Driving success with 120 Countdown.

Uniting volunteer supervisors and the Uniting 120 Countdown program help disadvantaged young drivers receive the 120 hours of driving experience they need before they can apply for their licences.

“I got involved with the 120 program when they were still trying to find house after a family drama. I did my licence or anyone to take me let alone a car. They made it so it was my first experience with and they were amazing.”

Tamara, 120 Countdown client

“It's just a great opportunity to help otherwise have great difficulty of driving.”

Alex, 120 Countdown volunteer

“I volunteer because I can help a young person a safe driver.”
